

A. Prayer of the Faithful

As we mark this Centennial, we proclaim our communal diversity as a gift to be embraced and celebrated. Let us commit to allowing this gift to continually transform our lives as disciples – as we lift our voices in prayer.

1. For a greater commitment among the Missionary Cenacle Family and the Church to seek freedom from injustice, oppression, and poverty for the immigrant community; Let us Pray to the Lord.
2. For the many lay collaborators and benefactors who generously support us and collaborate with us in mission; Let us Pray to the Lord.
3. For a renewed courage to continue challenging and changing systemic systems that hold back people based on racial and cultural biases; Let us Pray to the Lord.
4. For an increase of hope, faith, and charity in the Church and the world through the faithful living of our Charism, to preserve the faith, and through our commitment to being prophetic witness to the truth; Let us Pray to the Lord.
5. For a recommitment to the Family Spirit, that we move beyond ourselves to form a community composed of brothers and sisters who accept and care for one another; Let us Pray to the Lord.

We lift these prayers with gratitude for the Missionary Cenacle legacy entrusted to us as we recommit to the future. So we ask you, Holy and Undivided Trinity, to inflame our hearts with the same fire of your love you enkindled Fr. Judge, Mother Boniface, and the pioneers of the Missionary Cenacle 100 years ago, that today we too may respond with generosity. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

B. Prayer of the Faithful

Let us now present, with faith and hope, our petitions to the Father Creator God, through His Son Redeemer and the Strength of the Sanctifying Spirit.

Let us say to him with confidence: Holy and undivided Trinity listen our prayer

1. For the Holy Church: So we show evidence of being missionary disciples, loved by the Father. Let us Pray.
2. For all peoples so that, enlightened and guided by the Holy Spirit, let us fight for a fairer world and work for social justice for the poor in our missions. Let us Pray.
3. For all those who suffer, the sick, refugees, prisoners and their families, so they find in the merciful love of Jesus Christ comfort and strength. Let us pray.
4. For those who are oppressed by war and violence: so that, under the action of the Holy Spirit, it makes them feel like beloved children of the Father and brothers in the risen Christ, who gives us the peace that comes from God. Let us Pray.
5. For everyone in the Missionaries Cenacle Family: so that each of us who are part of them may be disciples and missionaries of Jesus Christ, being good, doing good and being a power for good. Let us Pray
6. For the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity: That motivated by the gifts of the Holy Spirit of strength and wisdom to follow "Preserving the faith, making every Catholic an Apostle" for the next 100 years. Let us Pray.

Contemplate, oh loving Father, the face of your Only Begotten and heed the prayer of your children that we present to you through Jesus Christ our Lord.
